Dedication
To Our Parents

We the Senior Class of 1959, in appreciation of the great help and inspiration you, our parents, have given us in our few short years here at Huddleston High School, do dedicate our last effort, the Mirror. We have found you always behind us in our scholastic work, on the athletic field, and on the basketball court. We have found you always to be devoted and helpful to us. We hope you will accept this yearbook as our token to you for being such a wonderful, understanding group of Parents.

Sincerely,
The Senior Class of '59

"All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players. They have their entrances and exits; and one man in his time plays many parts. . . . . ."
Of all the roles we may assume, one of the most important is ended as we leave the stage on graduation night. This parting need not be forever because we have our memories. If this volume can help you recapture that which you were reluctant to lose, then it will be your yearbook.

REVIEWS

In September 1955, We, the Seniors of '59 as Freshmen, began our show career. As our prompter, we had Arcel Thomas. Our Theatre group consisted of 34 ambitious amateurs, we elected Dorothy Cassell as our President to assist our Prompter.

One of our dramatic actresses, Ann Ferguson decided that she preferred a homemaking career to show business. We also lost Loretta Crum to marriage, and Rucker Burnette, Samuel Miller, Thomas Krantz, and Carl Jenkins just left.

After presenting "Aunt Miranda's Will", we decided that we needed a rest.

In September '56, twenty six of us, experienced amateurs, resumed our show career. Again, we had Arcel Thomas for our prompter. To assist him we elected as President-Bobby Ferrell, Vice President-Norma Ayers, Secretary-Vesta Murphy, and Treasurer-Emma Spradlin.

A hillbilly singer, Rosa Witt spent part of the season with us. We lost Jimmy Leftwich, one of our greatest comedians, due to circumstances beyond our control.

The season wasn't as busy as we expected so we had time to serve at a banquet for some real stars. We also took a trip to Appomattox.

September '57, we resumed full speed ahead with twenty-five semi-professionals. Our prompter was Miss Lucy Cosby. To help her we elected as President-Ruby Wildman, Vice President-Edgar Mitchell, Secretary-Arlene Wood, and Treasurer-Luther Lemon. Between seasons, we lost Dorothy Cassell and Kenneth Witt as they got contracts with larger Theatres. We later lost Herbert Plymale to armed services. Our performance of "A Boy Named Beulah" was a success. To celebrate, we threw a ball in honor of the stars that were graduating to greater work, our theme for this banquet was "Moonlight and Roses."

September '58, we renewed our contracts once more with twenty four stars, after all there's no business like show business. Our prompter being Mrs. Jack Jones, to assist her we have as President-Bobby Ferrell, Vice President-Lucy Overstreet, Treasurer-Buddy Craighead, and Secretary-Phyllis Newman. We lost a cowboy star Edward Dellis to Armed Services. Our big performance of the year was "Headin for a Weddin", a hillbilly comedy.

We sat back and enjoyed the banquet that the oncoming stars gave in our honor. We also enjoyed our Senior trip very much.

We have concluded our final performance together, so Broadway here we come ready or not.

Class Prophecy

As we gaze into the cup of tea leaves we see the future of 1969 unfolding before us. As the leaves fall into place we see Buddy Craghead now the owner of one of the most promising businesses we have ever seen. He is the proud owner of a flourishing chain of restaurants.

Reese Witt also has a promising business in farming. He is supplying Buddy's restaurants with his Grade A farm products. He has come up with one of the greatest products ever, the Sankatator.

And what is this we see on the adjoining farm? Why it is the former Emma Spradlin, tending to the cattle while her husband is working in the tobacco field. In her spare time she is busy teaching the teen-age girls in her community the latest dance steps.

We now see Ruby Wildman, one of the greatest medical technicians since 1959, mixing one of her famous formulas guaranteed to make anyone giggle.

Well now, Wallace Laughon has stepped up quite a bit. He is now driving a bus for the great Greyhound Bus Lines. Oh, I forgot, they don't have govenors on them.

Mrs. Carl U. Wheeler, the former Shirley Howell, is a housewife with one set of twins, two Sylvesta cats and one husband. She spends 12 hours a day watching T. V.

And who but Norma Ayers can do commercials that aren't corney? She is quite busy advertising between innings of the Milwaukee baseball games, in which Willis Mitchen is the star player. They all quiver in their boots when he comes to bat.

We see that Wayne Witt and Arlene Wood are just returning from the ballgame riding in Wayne's latest invention the Zoomobile, on which he has made millions.

Scheduled to be telecast after the ballgame is a woman wrestling match, the star is none other than Thelma Brooks. She got her start by portraying the part of a wrestler in the Junior Play while she was in high school.

The Professor of Duke University, Bobby Ferrell, has his own spot on television giving talks on "Safety tips for school bus drivers."

Herbert Jones is the top Pepsi salesman at Jones University. He does his big business during the milk break.

Just look who is the manager of Carlyle's Service Station, none other than the former Fern Creasy. It looks as if she has quite a promising business.

Now who could this be coming in that baby buggy----oh pardon me, it's a foreign car and the driver is the old speed demon himself, Cecil Krantz.

Jesse Fifer is still a playboy. He is now operating a studio in Hollywood, California. In his spare time he works on typewriters.

Phyllis Newman is now giving speed lessons in typing since she is the well known typing instructor at Phils Business College.

We see Margaret Eubank as assistant manager of one of the biggest department stores in the state of Tennessee. Eula Lacy is her head saleslady in the Ladies Wear department.

The tea leaves are slowly changing their position, we now see former Lucy Overstreet keeping books on the latest experiments of the Technician, Ruby. We see that Ruby's guaranteed giggling formula works because she has Lucy giggling.

We see Edgar Mitchell and his wife trying to break into his dad's shoes, by selling electrical appliances.

Luther Lemon has teamed up with George Gobel, and they are starring in 3 T. V. comedies each week. Every one is looking forward to seeing him in his latest comedy GOOD MORNING MRS. ASHWELL.

Speaking of show business, we see Vesta Murphy as the star of the Grand Ole Opera. She is singing her latest hit, "Look a Thar."

As I said before the tea leaves are slowly changing their position. It seems as though they are not going to let us gaze any farther into the future, so we must start planning for it and hope that we do the best thing.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1959, assuming that we are of sound minds and good judgement, do make our last will and testament as follows:

We bequeath to Mr. Darnell what remains of the school, and wish for him a soundness of body and soul, for he shall surely need it now that the good class has gone.

To the faculty we leave many thanks for their patient guidance, and a bottle of Geritol so that they can recover after running themselves down trying to keep up with us.

We do hereby will without reservation the worrisome days and tortured nights of trying to live up to the record of the class of 1958.

I, Ruby Wildman, will my ability to giggle at the wrong time, in the wrong place, at the wrong thing to.....on second thought I'll keep it.

I, Cecil Krantz, will my ability to walk to school to Sherman Krantz.

I, Phyllis Newman, will my quiet ways to Lois Creasy, in hopes that she will use them.

I, Jesse Fifer, will my ability to get thrown out of the library to Lynn Austin.

I, Lucy Overstreet, will my flirty ways, my height, and my blonde hair to Sarah Franklin, because when I leave, I want to start anew.

I, Edgar Mitchell, will my thick black wavy hair to Mr. Darnell.

I, Emma Spradlin, will them dang critters to Betty Austin in hopes that she can control them better than I could.

I, Wayne Witt, will my weak ankles to Ronnie Laughlin to support his falling arches.

I, Norma Ayers, will to my sister, Brenda, the shorthand I didn't learn.

I, Buddy Craghead will my dignified ways to Ray Cheek.

I, Shirley Howell, will my long blonde hair to Jean Krantz.

I, Reese Witt, will my ability to get along with girls to Junior Gardner.

I, Vesta Murphy, am not leaving anything because what is the use of going if I can't take it all with me.

I, Wallace Laughon, will my ability to get caught at Huddleston to anyone who might be going.

I, Thelma Brooks, will my height to Joyce Burnette.

I, Bobby Ferrell, will my ability to drive the school bus to Tommy Wilson.

I, Arlene Wood, will my petite 5 feet 1 inch to Virginia Tweedy.

I, Willis Mitchen, will my grades to Billy Ferrell.

I, Fern Creasy, just leave in hopes to get a better position on the Green's Drug Store basketball team.

I, Margaret Eubank, don't leave anything because I don't have anything to leave.

I, Herbert Jones, will my curly hair to Grady Ayers.

I, Eula Lacy, will my weight to Norma Jean Miller.

I, Luther Lemon, just leave.
